Dear Bob:

Just a note to call to your attention my view that the people in your Office of Global Issues are doing a fine job in addressing the problems created by the strained international financial situation. I recently visited with [] and some of his team to discuss current economic issues and was most impressed with the quality and thoroughness of their work.

STAT

As you know, the Board has been concerned about the international economic problem since crisis first loomed last August. The Agency should be commended for the quality of its continuing response to what has been a very difficult issue.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Leo Cherne
